

For guests of Dryhill

we offer a very special candle making course

Join Sally from Cotswold Pure Botanicals to make your very own naturally fragranced candles. Learn how to make soy wax candles infused with essential oils in a two hour introductory workshop. During the class, which will take place here at Dryhill, you will be taken step-by-step through the candle making process and you will have the opportunity to create two hand poured container candles. £45 per person, all materials are included.
